We recognize that the land on which we gather has been and still is the traditional territory of several Indigenous nations, including the Anishinaabe, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, the Wendat, the Métis, and the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. Since time immemorial, numerous Indigenous nations and Indigenous peoples have lived and passed through this territory.

Sheridan College affirms it is our collective responsibility to honour the land, as we honour and respect those who have gone before us, those who are here, and those who have yet to come. We are grateful for the opportunity to be learning, working and thriving on this land.

In addition to the aforementioned treaties, Sheridan is located in the territory of Treaty 13A and Treaty 19. The Trafalgar Campus and Mississauga Campus falls under Treaty 13A, 1805 - Toronto Purchase, and the Davis Campus in Brampton is under Treaty 19, 1818 - Ajetance Treaty.
